After the pandemic, the inner journey to take care of ourselves had increased not only in practices as Yoga, Meditation or healthy food. But society got closed to alternative and sacred aspects of our existence and this had put to review ancestral and tribal medicine. In sacred medicine, we are taught that traditional medicine practitioners, and those with the titular veneration of healer (Dhakas -Dakhinis), are people who are deeply connected to the Spirits of the land and thus are able to connect with those who seek them out for healing facilitation. One of the many skills these practitioners possess include being able to perform a spiritual & energy cleaning, balance of the body, mind & spirit.

Part of the training is to understand this part of the massages to give you a unique approach to other part of the experience the healing.
