Tantra & Shamanism work as a healing science & as a way to elevate consciousness. Both are based in 3 dimensions: the physical body; the astral body and the causal body.

In our times, allopathic medicine is going back to the old wisdom of practices like Ayurveda, Yoga, Chinese Medicine, acupuncture, natural remedies between other ones. In some aspects, Science and Supra-Natura are becoming in the middle.

Tantric Shamanistic knowledge combines also both aspects of this middle point.

Sacred Sexuality is one of the main aspects and tools that Tantric Shamanism uses to heal, to connect with the universe and develop the communication with the Supra-Consious and the Supra-Natura.

In this retreat we will explore the power, knowledge and experience of sexual energy, ritualism, and embodied shaman practices and where they can take us. The objective is to awake the Tantric Shaman on you in order that you experience but take the basic knowledge to do it afterwards.
